Office of Information Services, DA

SUBJECT: Costs and Manpower Estimates Related to Information
Security in CIA Compiled for the Countermeasures
Macro Resource Data Study

25X1 REFERENCE: Memo #D/ICS-83-0776, dated 15 December 1983 from Executive Secretary of the Interagency Group/Countermeasures, titled "Countermeasures Macro Resource Data Study" with attachment

1. Herewith is the breakdown of the resources expended by the CIA on information security programs as defined in the attachment to reference. The figures are presented in Attachments A thru H under the eight program headings as defined in the attachment to reference. Two of the headings were so closely related that they were combined into one, "Reviews for Declassification and Downgrading," and "Reviews for FOIA and Privacy Act Declassification."

2. In the eight attachments, each program is broken down with an explanation of the components that are involved, what activities are covered, and the amount of resources expended for each of the three fiscal years 1983-85. The totals for CIA information security programs by fiscal year are as follows:
